B. SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

I, The Main Subscriber named above, hereby subscribe for the Mtunzini Emergency Paramedic Service on the Terms and Conditions Set out below.

Terms and Conditions of Service applicable to the Mtunzini Emergency Paramedic Scheme (MEPS)

1. The Mtunzini Residents Association, (“MRA”) on behalf of its members who subscribe to the MEPS, and other non-member subscribers (“the Subscribers”), and in terms of these Terms and Conditions of Service, will contract with Medi Response Holdings (Pty) Ltd – (Reg Number: 2012/165357/07) (“MRH”) to provide an emergency Paramedic Service (“the Service) to Subscribers in and in the immediate vicinity of the Village of Mtunzini “(the Village”);
2. The MRA’s role in facilitating the provision of this Service on behalf of its members and other subscribers, is as facilitator only, and the MRA will assume no liability for the provision of such Service, or the failure to provide such Service, or the quality or lack of quality of the Service, and the MRA, as its sole and exclusive liability to Subscribers, shall cede and assign to Subscribers, any rights, claims or other actions that it may have against MRH in any particular instance.
3. The MRA undertakes that it will however exercise its best endeavours to ensure that the quality of the Service provided by MRH is of the standard that can reasonably be expected of a professional supplier of services similar to the Services in South Africa.
4. In the event of an increase in the number of Subscribers to the Service, the MRA undertakes that it will pass on any operational savings occasioned thereby to Subscribers in the form of reduced subscriptions as may be appropriate.
5. In the event of the termination of the Service for any reason, the MRA will pass on to Subscribers, on a fully ‘pro rata’ basis, any surplus funds accruing to the Service within 60 days of the termination of the Service.
6. These Terms and Conditions of Service may be amended by the MRA on 60 days’ notice.
7. Dependants 21 and older will be charged as adults.
